This warranty does not cover damage resulting from abuse, misuse, negligence or accident; nor from problems resulting from failure to comply with all applicable state and local laws and regulations.

This warranty does not cover problems caused, in whole or in part, by alteration or modification to the product.

This warranty is also exclusive of damage caused during installation, shipping or handling. Any damage to packaging materials or products should be noted on receiving paperwork before the customer accepts the product. Product contained in damaged packaging should be inspected for damage immediately to avoid confusion as to the cause of and responsibility for the damaged product. All damage is to be reported to Manchester Tank within 7 days of receipt of goods. For credit to be received, the original packaging material must be returned with the product unless authorisation to deviate from these instructions is obtained in advance.

This warranty is intended to cover parts and labour required for repair of any defective cylinders but does not include or cover transportation to and from service locations, loss of time, inconvenience, commercial loss, loss of use, incidental charges, or other consequential damages

Warranty coverage is contingent upon compliance with Manchester Tank & Equipment Pty Ltd terms and conditions.
